MEDIA ADVISORY/RELEASE: Post to celebrate tax season with reopening of Tax Center

FORT BENNING, Georgia – The Tax Center will observe the start of the tax season with a ribbon-cutting ceremony at 2:30 p.m. Jan. 29 at the Office of the Staff Judge Advocate, Building 2839 on Ashley Avenue. Garrison Commander Col. Andy Hilmes will be the keynote speaker.

Soldiers, retirees and Family members can use the Tax Center to e-file their 2015 state and federal returns for free after they receive professional tax advice from the staff certified by the IRS to prepare returns.

Last year, the Tax Center saved Fort Benning Soldiers and Families more than $1 million in tax preparation fees.
