

MCoE Commanding General's

Vision, Mission, Key Tasks

A black and white photograph showing the silhouettes of several soldiers in a field, possibly during a training exercise or a deployment. The soldiers are positioned in a line, and their forms are dark against a lighter, hazy background. The overall mood is somber and focused.

Vision: An MCoE team that is adaptive and innovative, preserves our warrior ethos, and ensures that our Army's maneuver forces will overmatch the enemy and accomplish the mission in current and future wars.

Mission: The Maneuver Center of Excellence provides trained, agile, adaptive and ready Soldiers and Leaders for an Army at war, while developing capabilities for the Maneuver Force and the individual Soldier and providing a world-class quality of life for our Soldiers, Civilians, and Army Families.

MCoE Key Tasks

- Develop and implement a maneuver leader training and education strategy to develop agile adaptive leaders, committed to the Army Profession, who possess the knowledge, skills, abilities, and attributes to be successful on complex battlefields.
- Institutionalize lessons and innovate to ensure that our Soldiers and Leaders are grounded in the fundamentals and are prepared to fight, lead, and win across the range of military operations in complex, uncertain, and changing environments.
- Develop capabilities in our combat formations to seize, retain, and exploit the initiative across the range of military operations.
- Review, revise, and apply doctrine to consolidate lessons of recent armed conflict and ensure maneuver leaders and units are prepared to fight and win across the range of military operations.
- Adapt MCoE organization, personnel, and processes, and collaborate with other CoEs, services, and research organizations to improve the combat effectiveness of the Maneuver Force through integrated doctrine, organization, training, materiel, leadership and education, personnel, and facilities (DOTMLPF).
- Apply best practices and innovate to ensure the health of the force and make Fort Benning the best installation in the world for our Soldiers, Families, and Civilians.