

Command Sergeant Major Timothy A. Guden
Command Sergeant Major, U.S. Army Maneuver Center of Excellence

Command Sergeant Major Timothy A. Guden is a native of Medford, WI. He enlisted in the United States Army on July 28, 1987 and attended Basic Combat Training at Fort Jackson, SC. He has held numerous leadership positions ranging from team leader to brigade command sergeant major, and most recent as the Command Sergeant Major, United States Army Infantry School Fort Benning, GA.

His combat deployments include four tours in Iraq, one tour in Afghanistan and one tour in the Persian Gulf in support of Operations Desert Shield/Desert Storm. CSM Guden has held two yearlong overseas assignments in Korea and Panama. Stateside, he has been assigned to Fort Bragg, Fort Jackson, Fort Bliss, and Fort Hood.

CSM Guden has attended all levels of the Noncommissioned Officer Education System, to include the Battle Staff NCO Course, the First Sergeant's Course and the U.S. Army Sergeant's Major Academy. He has also attended the Ranger Course, the Jumpmaster Course, and the Drill Sergeant Course.

His awards and decorations include, the Presidential Unit Citation, the Valorous Unit Award (with one oak leaf cluster), the Meritorious Unit Citation (with one oak leaf cluster), the Army Superior Unit Award, both the Expert and Combat Infantryman's Badge and the Ranger Tab. In March of 2014, CSM Guden was selected as the Maneuver Center of Excellence and Fort Benning, GA., Command Sergeant Major.