

Major General Austin S. Miller
Commanding General, U.S. Army Maneuver Center of Excellence

Major General Scott Miller was commissioned in the Infantry upon graduation from the United States Military Academy at West Point in 1983. As an Infantry officer, Major General Miller served in a variety of tactical assignments in mechanized, light infantry, and special operations units. He has served in the 82nd Airborne Division, 2nd Infantry Division, 75th Ranger Regiment and United States Army Special Operations Command. He has served in numerous joint command and staff assignments: the Deputy Director of Special Operations; the Director, Pakistan-Afghanistan Coordination Center on the Joint Staff, Washington, D.C.; and Commander, Combined Forces Special Operations Component Command in Afghanistan.

Major General Miller has commanded at every rank from Captain to Major General, to include combat tours in Somalia, Afghanistan, and Iraq, as well as support for contingency operations in Bosnia and Latin America. Prior to his arrival at the United States Army Maneuver Center of Excellence and Fort Benning, Major General Miller was the Commander of NATO Special Operations Component Command-Afghanistan/Special Operations Joint Task Force-Afghanistan from June 2013 to June 2014.

Major General Miller holds a Master of Science degree in Strategy from the Marine Corps University in Quantico, Virginia. He is also a graduate of the Army's Command and General Staff College. His awards include the Defense Superior Service Medal with five oak leaf clusters, the Legion of Merit, Bronze Star Medal with V device, Bronze Star Medal with oak leaf cluster, the Purple Heart Medal with oak leaf cluster, and the Defense Meritorious Service Medal with oak leaf cluster. He has also earned the Combat Infantryman Badge with Star, Expert Infantryman Badge, Master Parachutist Badge, Military Free Fall Parachutist Badge, and Ranger Tab.