MEDIA RELEASE: Fort Benning winter weather update

DATE: Jan. 28, 2014

FORT BENNING, Ga. – Due to the anticipated winter storm, all non-essential personnel will be dismissed at 3 p.m. today.

Fort Benning agencies/activities will open under a delayed arrival on Jan. 29. All employees should report to their worksite no later than noon. Employees should remain in contact with their supervisor or manager.

All Fort Benning Department of Defense Education Activity Schools are closed for students and staff Jan. 28 and 29.

The Main Post Child Development Center and School Age Services will open at 5:30 a.m. Jan. 29 for the children of mission-essential personnel only. Children of mission-essential personnel, ages infant through pre-school, must go to the Main Post CDC, Building 1366. School-age children, kindergarten through 8th grade, must go to the School-Age Services Building, Building 2653. If your child is on medication, parents should bring the medications to these alternate sites when dropping children off.

All other CDCs will open at noon Jan. 29, and resume regular hours.

All Youth Service sports and instructional classes are cancelled Jan. 29. The 11- to 13- year olds' practice scheduled for Jan. 29 at Faith Middle School is also cancelled.

All patient appointments scheduled from noon Jan. 28 through 6 p.m. Jan. 29, will be rescheduled by Martin Army Community Hospital. Patients will be notified of their new appointment time with a phone call from their care provider. Medical services and emergent care will be available during these hours with reduced staffing.

Please check the Fort Benning and Martin Army Community Hospital web pages, as well as the Martin Army Community Hospital Facebook page, for updates. Information is also available on the CARE line, 706-544-2273, by selecting Public Affairs Updates.

Non-emergency employees have the option of taking unscheduled leave with the approval of their supervisor.
