MEDIA RELEASE: Fort Benning Army Ten-Miler team takes 2nd place

FORT BENNING, Georgia – The Fort Benning Army Ten-Miler team took 2nd place in the Active Duty Open-Mixed category at the 31st annual Army Ten-Miler in Washington, D.C., October 11, 2015.

Fort Benning's Active Duty Open-Mixed team placed 2nd with a combined time of 3:55:40. Last year the Fort Benning Army Ten-Miler team placed 1st, only missing this year's 1st place by 1:34.

The team's individual results were 2nd Lt. Brett Carter with a time of 55:23; Capt. Torre Santiago, 56:17; Capt. Steve Willson 59:01; 2nd Lt. Lucas Baker 59:26; Staff Sgt. Michael Catron, 1:01:39; Capt. David Swanson, 1:02:22 and Capt. Maia Paris, 1:04:59.

The team's attributes success to the personal dedication and willingness of each member to train between their Army duties and Family time.
