PROCESSING SCHEDULES: Redeployment processing follows two schedules, one for Individual Redeployers (IR) (i.e., Soldiers that do not travel from OCONUS via the SAAM flight) and one for Freedom Flight Redeployers (FFR) (i.e., Soldiers that travel via the SAAM flight to Atlanta).

PROCESSING TIMES: AVERAGE times are listed below.

Component	Category	Processing Time
AC	IR/FFR	1-2 days
DoD/DA Civilians	IR/FFR	1-2 days
USAR/NGB	IR	3-6 days
USAR/NGB	FFR	5 days

WARNING: Any issue with health, orders, leave, PDMRA, extensions, missing equipment, and early return without an O6 memorandum, emergency leave and other issues will cause a DELAY in processing under the average timelines.

PROCESSING INFORMATION: The first step in redeploying is to turn-in at CIF (RFI and OCIE). CIF will only accept one run per day from the CRC at 0600 hours Monday – Friday. CIF will not clear any personnel who are not accompanied by CRC staff. On Sunday, CIF is open for Freedom Flight personnel and any personnel that arrived over the weekend. CIF turn-in for Freedom Flight personnel is immediately after the Welcome Home ceremony. *NOTE: If the Freedom Flight arrives after 1400 hours (into Atlanta), CIF turn-in will be at 0600 on the following day.

Active Component Army, Civilians and all other military branches: Out-process CIF only

Reserve and National Guard: Out-process CIF, Medical, Dental, Finance, Admin SRP, Chaplain, Legal, and all DoD required briefings. NOTE: Per DA G1, Retiree Recalls must submit PDMRA requests to ASA 90 days PRIOR to current mobilization end date. PDMRA for Retiree Recall processed through CRC may take up to 45 days for ASA approval. Medical Holds require Medical Retention Program Extensions (MRP-E) if transferring to the Warrior Transition Battalion.

AGR Title 10 out-processes CIF only.

AGR Title 32 follows the same process as Reservists

CRC REDEPLOYMENT EXPECTATION POINTS

(Updates as of 01 OCT 2012)

IRs begins processing at 0600, Monday through Friday. If you have lost baggage, inform the staff immediately upon sign-in. IRs who arrive on Friday after 0900 and who arrive on Saturday will process CIF on Sunday. Report to Staff Duty at Bldg 4720 to request billeting and times to report on Sunday. Monday through Friday Arrivals after 0530 will process the next day. Monday through Friday Reserve and National Guard Soldiers who arrive after 0530 but prior to 1300 can begin out-processing available agencies.

FFRs will be greeted with a Welcome Home Ceremony at Lawson Army Airfield by CRC Staff and proceed directly to CIF following the ceremony, if the Freedom Flight lands prior to 1400 in Atlanta.

Sign-out. No one is authorized, regardless of grade, to sign himself or herself out of the CRC. You must Sign-out through the D Co.

Follow-on Travel. CRC can only fly personnel to their Home of Record or Duty Station as directed on their orders. Redeployers must pay the difference in order to fly to any other location.

Active Component authorized by orders may arrange their own travel arrangements after clearing CIF. (AC) FFRs requiring CRC to make travel arrangements will fly on the day following their arrival. IRs will fly home upon clearing CIF.

Army Reserve and National Guard authorized by orders may arrange their own travel after clearing Reverse SRP. Flights arranged by CRC will be the following day after clearing Reverse SRP.

CRC staff can assist DA/DOD personnel with flight arrangements only if authorized on the individual's orders or LOA.
