Title: Master Resilience Trainer-Facilitator

Proponent: HQDA DCS-G3/5/7

Special designation: Professional development proficiency code (PDPC) ASI

- a. Description of positions. There are no positions identified for ASI 8J. ASI is for use with personnel only.
- b. Description of Requirements. Students who attend the ten day MRT Course are assessed objectively (depth of knowledge through written checks on learning and Q&A, use of MRT lexicon, performance oriented practical exercises), and subjectively (through class participation, presentation style and motivation) by the MRT training team. Students who excel in the MRT course are invited to attend the five day MRT Facilitator Course. This next level course trains selected MRTs to assist the Comprehensive Soldier and Family Fitness Program in the delivery of training at the MRT Course. The Facilitator's role is to assist the MRT Trainer in managing the breakout classroom environment (timing, capturing learning points from students, etc). The MRT-F generates discussions for students with a ratio of 1:6 to teach, learn and the application of the 12 skills. The MRT-F Course is designed to build the MRT's depth of knowledge and develop a facilitation style that maximizes the MRT learning environment. The MRT-F graduates are not qualified to do anything different at the unit level, however, as a result of having a greater exposure to the MRT curriculum, MRT facilitators could be used to guide resilience programs at higher echelons. Facilitators are not authorized to conduct MRT courses that train certified MRTs or award the 8R ASI. The MRT's can only be certified by HQDA DCS G-3/5/7 DAMO CSFF.
- c. Prerequisites.
Must successfully complete the ASI 8R ten day course at the (a) University of Pennsylvania in Philadelphia; (b) Leader Development Division, Fort Jackson, SC, or Fort McCoy, Wisconsin and Fort Custer, Michigan for the National Guard and Reserve or at (d) various installations by Mobile Training Teams (CONUS or OCONUS).
