References: FM 3-25.150.

Time Zone Used Throughout the Order: Eastern Standard Time (EST) or Eastern Daylight Savings Time (EDT).

Task Organization: Instructor to student ratio is 1 to 12

1. SITUATION: 2-29 IN, Fort Benning, GA provides Resident Courses and Mobile Training Teams (MTTs) to US Army units in both CONUS and OCONUS. Courses include: Anti-Armor Leader Course, Javelin Master Trainer Course, Sniper School, Sniper Employment Leaders Course (SELC), Small Arms Weapons and Optics (SAWO), Short Range Marksmanship (SRM), Long Range Marksmanship (LRM), Basic Combatives Instructor Course (BCIC), Tactical Combatives Instructor Course (TCIC), Infantry Mortar Leaders Course (IMLC), and Small Unmanned Aircraft System (SUAS) Master Trainer.

a. Higher Units Mission. 2nd Battalion, 29th Infantry trains Soldiers and Infantry Leaders, demonstrates Infantry capabilities, provides subject matter expertise, develops doctrine and supports the United States Army by providing Soldiers and Leaders prepared to fight and win.

2. MISSION: D/2-29 IN conducts the Basic Combatives Instructor Course certification via Mobile Training Teams to CONUS and OCONUS installations IOT train selected individuals on advanced Combatives Techniques, thus enabling certified SM's to act/serve as a Battalion, and Brigade Master Trainers.

3. EXECUTION

a. Concept of the Operation. The BCIC is a 160-hour, four-week course that builds off of the skills taught in the Basic Combatives Course and Tactical Combatives Course. It is designed to take the skills that have been until now stand alone, and integrate them into METL training. Graduates of the BCIC are qualified to teach the Basic Combatives Course (BCC), referee post level standard and intermediate rule competitions, and serve as Battalion Master Trainers for scenario based training. Each Battalion must have one BCIC qualified SM assigned a special duty to oversee the Bn program. The goal is to have one BCIC trainer per Company.
