

A Mission That Matters

Continue to serve your country and protect our transportation systems.

The Transportation Security Administration (TSA) recognizes that veterans have demonstrated leadership, integrity, teamwork and a commitment to public service.

You'll appreciate the camaraderie of working with a dedicated team in an environment where personal growth and a lasting career can take shape. Outstanding federal benefits include:

- Health, dental and vision insurance
- Paid on-the-job training
- Tuition reimbursement
- Retirement plan with matching contributions

TSA Values Veterans

Veterans serve across TSA in a wide range of positions, including Transportation Security Officers, Federal Air Marshals, Explosives Specialists, Intelligence Analysts, Canine Handlers, and various other mission support positions.

Veterans' Preference

Qualified veterans and their family members may be ranked and placed ahead of other applicants when applying to a TSA job announcement that's open to the general public.

Learn more at jobs.tsa.gov/Veterans

ENSURING SAFE TRAVELS

U.S. citizenship required. Equal opportunity employer.

TSA IS NOW HIRING

TRANSPORTATION SECURITY OFFICERS

Job Requirements

- U.S. citizen or national
- 18 years of age or older
- High school diploma, GED or equivalent certificate
- Registered for Selective Service
- No previous security experience is required
- Able to pass a federal drug test, medical evaluation and background investigation
- Available to work various shifts, occasional overtime and to travel for training

Promotion Potential

TSOs have a career ladder that enables them to increase their starting base salary by up to 67% over 5 years, in addition to any federal-wide pay increases or changes to locality pay.

After 5 years	Up to 67% starting base salary increase
After 4 years	Up to 62% starting base salary increase
After 3 years	Up to 57% starting base salary increase
After 2 years	Up to 52% starting base salary increase
After 1 year	Up to 25% starting base salary increase

Learn more about the TSO hiring process at:

jobs.tsa.gov/tso

Equal opportunity employer.

Join a Career That Matters

A job with the Transportation Security Administration (TSA) can be a step into a meaningful career—one that provides stability, excellent benefits and opportunities for advancement. Join us and be part of our extraordinary team.

The Role

Transportation Security Officers (TSOs) are responsible for screening passengers and baggage to keep our transportation systems safe. The TSO position is a great entry point to a fulfilling career with the federal government.

ENSURING SAFE TRAVELS