MEMORANDUM FOR RECORD

SUBJECT: Reconnaissance and Surveillance Leaders Course – Welcome Letter

1. Welcome to the Reconnaissance and Surveillance Leaders Course! The following information will set expectations and provide initial guidance for attending the course.

2. RSLC is a fast-paced course filled with physically and mentally challenging events. Over the course of 26 days, you will receive instruction on the foundations and various techniques of reconnaissance and surveillance including advanced land navigation, information collection and reporting, line-of-sight and high frequency communications, mission planning, insertion and extraction considerations, evasion and recovery, survival, and a multitude of reconnaissance and surveillance methods. Students who successfully complete this course become better Soldiers and leaders through their mastery of the fundamentals of reconnaissance and surveillance.

3. It is imperative that you arrive in peak physical and mental condition, ready to train. We recommend that you can score a minimum of 540 points on the ACFT and conduct a 12-mile ruck march with 35 pounds in less than 3 hours. We also recommend that you possess a basic understanding of land navigation in order to ensure a smooth transition into our advanced land navigation classes. Please reference our website at the link below and take advantage of the training materials we have provided to assist in your preparation.

4. See attached Vehicle Identification Study Guide. You must print out and study this material prior to attendance. Be sure to bring your Vehicle ID Study Guide, as it will be an inspectable item during the layout.

5. At 1200 hours on your report date, you will in-process under the covered training area located in front of Building 4713 at 10654 Hawkes Avenue, Fort Moore, Georgia. A list of required documents and additional coordinating instructions can be found on the RSLC Website or the RSLC Facebook page. Early reporting prior to report date is NOT authorized.

SUBJECT: Reconnaissance and Surveillance Leaders Course – Welcome Letter

6. Upon receipt of this welcome letter, please confirm that you are attending as scheduled. If you are not able to attend for any reason, please contact us so that we can remove you from the class roster and afford the opportunity to another student.

7. While attending the course you will be restricted to Camp Cornett. You will have access to your cell phone/laptop after the training is completed for the day. Cell phones are strictly prohibited during course activities. There are no visitors allowed on Camp Cornett during your attendance at the course. However, personnel may drop off items or equipment through the RSLC TAC on duty. Students are NOT authorized to bring personal/unit issued Night Optic Devices (NODs).

8. Graduation will be held at 0900 hours on Day 26 of the course. Families are welcome to attend. Service members will not schedule departure flights earlier than 1400 hours on day of graduation.

9. If you have any questions or concerns prior to arrival, feel free to reach out to the POC of this memorandum and we will make every effort to assist. My team and I look forward to seeing you at this next class!

10. The point of contact for this memorandum is the RSLC Senior Instructor, SFC Manglona, Francisco B. at francisco.b.manglona.mil@army.mil or at (254) 449-4116.
