MEDIA ADVISORY: Fort Moore Soldiers compete for Best Squad, NCO, and Soldier of the Year

WHAT: The Maneuver Center of Excellence will host the 2023 Best Squad competition, featuring five-Soldier squads from the installation's various brigades. Each squad will consist of one sergeant first class or staff sergeant, one sergeant or corporal, and three Soldiers in the rank of specialist through private.

WHEN: June 5-9

WHERE: Fort Moore, Georgia

WHY: The MCoE provides trained and combat-ready Soldiers and leaders, develops the doctrine and capabilities of the maneuver force and individual Soldier, and provides a world-class quality of life for our Soldiers, civilians, and Army families. Squads will face a variety of physical and mental tests to include an Army Combat Fitness Test, written exam, scenario-based marksmanship event, land navigation, a board appearance, and a squad mission. The winning squad will move on to the next phase of the Army-wide competition at the U.S. Army Training and Doctrine Command, Fort Eustis, Virginia, later this year.

Interested media representatives should contact the MCoE Public Affairs office no later than 9:30 a.m., June 5, 2023, to receive coordinating instructions. Imagery will be available following the event.
