MEDIA ADVISORY: Fort Moore invites public to Independence Celebration

WHAT: The Maneuver Center of Excellence invites the Chattahoochee Valley to its annual Independence Celebration.

WHEN: 5-11 p.m., Saturday, June 24, 2023. A schedule of events may be found here:
<https://moore.armymwr.com/independence-celebration>

WHERE: York and Gardner Fields at McGinnis-Wickam Hall, Building 4, Fort Moore, Ga.

WHY: The Fort Moore Independence Celebration is the premier patriotic fireworks show in the Chattahoochee Valley. The event, hosted by MWR, is free and open to the public and provides an exceptional opportunity for our military and local communities to come together in celebration of our nation's independence in a safe and Family friendly environment.

This year's celebration includes a children's Fun Zone, aerial demonstrations by the Silver Wings and Fries & Spies, an opportunity to use the 34-foot Airborne jump towers, and a chance to Meet Your Army!

Music entertainment includes Texas DJ Black Rhino Sound, southern rock 'n' roll band Black Stone Cherry, country music upstart Jameson Rodgers, and the MCoE Band will conclude the evening with a performance of a patriotic score choreographed to our fireworks display.

HOW: Media interested in this event or conducting a live news hit June 23, should contact public affairs by noon, Thursday, June 22.
