MEDIA RELEASE: Fort Moore to host 33rd Annual Airborne Tower Lighting

FORT MOORE, Ga. – Maneuver Center of Excellence and the 507th Parachute Infantry Regiment of the Airborne and Ranger Training Brigade, will host the 33rd Annual Airborne Tower Lighting ceremony, Dec. 9, from 4 to 8 pm., at Eubanks Field on post.

The event is free and open to the public, celebrates the holidays, and provides attendees from both the installation and the surrounding communities a better understanding of the units, Soldiers and missions of the Maneuver Center of Excellence and Fort Moore.

This year's celebration will feature various activities and entertainment, military displays including a reptile show, music by the MCoE band, food trucks, 34-foot tower jumps and more.

Later in the evening, Santa will visit for photos, Fort Moore leadership will give holiday greetings, Silver Wings will perform a night jump parachute demonstration, and the celebration will culminate with a countdown to the 250-foot tower lighting.

Media who wish to cover this event should contact the MCoE Fort Moore Public Affairs office to coordinate a media escort no later than 4 p.m., Dec. 7. Community partners may visit www.moore.army.mil/GateInfo/Pass-Request-Online.html to coordinate installation access in advance.
