AKO NEWS

Resetting AKO Passwords Without Help Desk Assistance
Several options allow AKO account holders to reset their passwords without calling the help desk. The two most common are: receiving a reset link via a non-AKO email address and receiving a reset code via a text message. To utilize both of these options, users must update their account information with an external email address and a cell phone number. For details on adding this information, click "More." The Installation Support Modules-Central Issue Facility (ISMCIF) system has migrated to CAC/PIK-Based Authentication as of 1 November 2011. User names and password access to the ISM system will be disabled. All ISM users who are utilizing user names and passwords via AKO for authentication must convert to PKI-based authentication. As of 1 November 2011, the ISM system will be configured to only allow authentication via CAC/PIK credentials.

WELCOME TO THE ARMY CLOTHING AND INDIVIDUAL EQUIPMENT HOMEPAGE!

MISSION STATEMENT: The Clothing and Individual Equipment Division is the G-4 staff proponent for policy, management analysis and Army wide process improvement in the areas of Clothing Bag, Army Uniform Board, OCIE Management and OCIE funding.

RESPONSIBILITIES: Clothing and Individual Equipment (CIE) consists of personal/optional clothing items and organizational clothing and individual equipment (OCIE) items. Authorizations are included in Common Table Allowance (CTA) 50-900 and CTA 50-909. The Chief of Staff of the Army (CSA) is the Milestone Decision Authority (MDA) for personal clothing items. The Army Uniform Board (AUB) resolves issues, provides information, and makes recommendations for the CSA's approval. Program Executive Officer (PEO) Soldier is the MDA for OCIE items. OCIE is funded with Operations Maintenance Army (OMA) funds.
