

LTC Nathaniel B. Davis was commissioned as an Armor officer upon graduation from the University of Michigan where he majored in Political Science, History, and Studies in Religion. Stationed at Camp Casey, Republic of Korea, he served as a tank platoon leader and support platoon leader in the 1st Battalion, 72nd Armor.

Upon completion of the Armor Captains' Career Course and the Information Operations Officer Course, LTC Davis served as the Multi-National Division-Baghdad, Information Operations, Chief of Operations in Baghdad, Iraq during Operation Together Forward II. Upon his return to Fort Hood, TX, LTC Davis assumed command of Delta Company, 1st Battalion, 22nd Infantry, trained the unit to deploy, and led the unit through the Iraqi Surge campaign in Baghdad, Iraq. During the deployment the unit earned the Valorous Unit Award and the Combat Action Streamer. In the final months of the deployment, LTC Davis served as the Assistant Operations Officer for the 7th Squadron, 10th United States Cavalry.

Upon redeployment, LTC Davis attended Harvard University where he earned a Master of Public Administration. LTC Davis next served as an Assistant Professor and the Deputy Director of Defense and Strategic Studies at the United States Military Academy at West Point. In 2013, LTC Davis was awarded the Apgar Award for Excellence in Teaching, West Point's highest teaching honor.

Following his first assignment to West Point, LTC Davis attended the U.S. Army Command & General Staff College at Fort Leavenworth, KS, earning a Master of Military Art & Science in Joint Planning Studies. LTC Davis was next assigned to Fort Bliss, TX where he served as the Operations Officer and Executive Officer of the 1st Battalion, 6th Infantry.

LTC Davis earned a Ph.D. in War Studies from King's College London and most recently served as the Director of Defense and Strategic Studies at the United States Military Academy at West Point.

LTC Davis is a Term Member of the Council on Foreign Relations and a Member of the International Institute for Strategic Studies. His writings have been published by the Modern War Institute, Responsible Statecraft, and The New York Times, among others. His awards include the Bronze Star Medal, Iraqi Campaign Medal with 3 Campaign Stars, the Combat Action Badge, among others.