Office of the Chief of Armor

As of: 19 November 2018

MEMORANDUM FOR ARMOR AND CAVALRY SOLDIERS

SUBJECT: Armor and Cavalry Regimental Guide

1. The Armor Force remains the true Combat Arm of Decision throughout the full spectrum of conflict. The force is motivated, professional, intelligent, and technically and tactically competent. As the Armor Force and the US Army continue to transform, the importance of esprit de corps and tradition moves with us. The esprit de corps and teamwork afforded by the Regimental System will remain a critical feature in the cohesion of the Force.
2. As Chief of Armor, I fully support the Regimental System and its components. Commitment to the Regimental System not only benefits the units, but also benefits all Soldiers by connecting them with Armor's proud heritage.
3. This supplement was developed to inform Armor leaders and Soldiers with information on the Regimental System. It outlines all the aspects of the Regimental System needed to provide background information on the structure and association within the regiment. By using this supplement, all members of the Armor Force will greatly enhance their pride in unit and sense of belonging.
4. For questions or to submit updates to the unit honorary members, please contact the Office of the Chief of Armor, email: usarmy.benning.mcoe.mbx.armor-ocoa@mail.mil.

CHAPTER 2

THE HONORARY PROGRAM

1. General

a. Purpose. The purpose of the honorary program is to provide a link with history for today's Soldiers through Honorary Colonels of the Regiment (HCOR), Honorary Sergeants Major of the Regiment (HSGMOR), Distinguished Members of the Regiment (DMOR) and Honorary Members of the Regiment (HMOR).

b. Mission. The primary mission of the Soldiers holding honorary positions is to perpetuate the history and traditions of the regiment, thereby enhancing unit morale and esprit de corps. They provide insight into the future by way of the past. The HCOR and HSGMOR are credible sources for explaining and demonstrating the Army values. They lived through our brilliant history and can impart their knowledge and experiences.

c. Nominations

(1) Nominations for HCOR, HSGMOR, DMOR and HMOR may be received from several sources including regimental associations, active Army commanders, incumbent HCORs, HSGMORs and commanders within the regiment. (See Appendix C)

(2) The responsibility for consolidating HCOR and HSGMOR nominations rests with the regimental home-base commander, who reaches a consensus with the other battalion commanders of the regiment. The home-base commander then forwards nominations to the Office of the Chief of Armor at Fort Benning, Georgia.

(3) The responsibility for submitting DMOR and HMOR nominations rests with all armor battalion and cavalry squadron commanders.

d. Selection and Appointment

(1) The Chief of Armor provides the signed appointment certificates.

(2) OCOA Submits two certificates for signature, one for the HCOR, HSGMOR, DMOR or HMOR and one for the unit or regimental headquarters.

2. Honorary Colonel of the Regiment

(1) The HCOR must be a retired commissioned officer in the rank of COL or above with former service in a unit of the regiment. Exceptions may be granted for medal of valor recipients.

  - (a) Speaks on the regiment's history and traditions at dining-ins or similar functions.
  - (b) Chairs or presides over regimental committees.
- (5) Maintains contact between CONUS and OCONUS battalions and squadrons of the regiment.
- (6) Maintains communication with higher headquarters, lower units, and the Office of the Chief of Armor.
- (7) Regularly meets with the Commander of senior headquarters.

c. HCOR appointees will be appointed as DMOR simultaneously with their appointment of HCOR.

3. Honorary Sergeant Major of the Regiment

a. Qualifications and Requirements: The qualifications, requirements, and length of tour are the same as the HCOR except that the HSGMOR is a retired NCO in the rank of SFC or above. Exceptions may be granted for medal of valor recipients.

(2) The term of a DMOR is indefinite with no limit on the number of individuals who may be appointed. Posthumous awards of DMOR are authorized.

b. Duties and Responsibilities: DMORs are appointed to supplement and support the efforts of the HCOR or HSGMOR.

5. Honorary Member of the Regiment

a. HMORs can be Soldiers, spouses and individuals who contributed to or provided a service to the regiment, but are not members of the regiment.

b. The term for HMORs is indefinite, and there is no limit to the number of individuals who may be appointed.

6. Funding and Support

a. There are no funds to support this program. Reimbursement of incidental costs such as telephone bills, supplies or publications cost is not authorized.

b. Reimbursement of travel expenses for support of HCOR or HSGMOR, to support regimental functions may be from the unit's funds or at the expense of the respective Honorary Colonel or Sergeant Major.

c. Invitational Travel Orders may be issued by the organization or activity requesting the presence of the Honorary member at regimental functions.

7. Locating HCORs, HSGMORs, DMORs and HMORs. Finding candidates for holding honorary positions can be a difficult job. A unit must develop a list of candidates that are available. In some cases, candidates can be readily found from researching local sources.
