

103RD ARMOR REGIMENT

The 103rd Armor Regiment Unit Insignia was originally approved for the 628th Tank Destroyer Battalion, Light (Towed) Sept. 11, 1942. It was redesignated for the 628th Tank Battalion March 1, 1954. The insignia was redesignated for the 103rd Armor Regiment, Pennsylvania Army National Guard Aug. 14, 1961. The armored shell of the voracious man-eater, cracking the scales of the fish is an allegorical allusion to the destructive power of the organization and its skill in snaring the wary enemy. The motto, "Expedite (With Dispatch)," emphasizes the speed of the operation, while the idea of power and destruction is shown in the shield.
