

The insignia is the crest of the coat of arms and signifies the dashing spirit of the Cavalry service. The distinctive unit insignia was approved Feb. 6, 1924. It was rescinded Feb. 2, 1959.