

SULLIVAN CUP

The Sullivan Cup competition, part of Armor Week, showcases tank and Bradley crews across the U.S. and partner nations through a series of challenges designed to determine the world's best crews in the Armor Branch.

M1 ABRAMS MAIN BATTLE TANK

4x Person Crew

Tank Commander • Gunner • Driver • Loader

BRADLEY FIGHTING VEHICLE

3x Person Crew

Commander • Gunner • Driver

HISTORY

The Sullivan Cup was established in 2012 as a biennial competition that rigorously and comprehensively tests individual and crew-level proficiencies.

- 2012 - 1st Armored Division, Fort Bliss, Texas
- 2014 - 3rd Infantry Division, Fort Stewart, Ga.
- 2016 - 30th Armored Brigade Combat Team, N.C. National Guard
- 2018 - 3rd Infantry Division, Fort Stewart, Ga.
- 2022 - Tank Crew: 4th Infantry Division, Fort Carson, Colo.
Bradley Crew: 3rd Infantry Division, Fort Stewart, Ga.

In 2022, the Sullivan Cup expanded their armored vehicle team competition to incorporate Bradley Fighting Vehicle crews.

@MCOEFortMoore | #ArmorWeek | #SullivanCup

2024

5x NATIONS COMPETING

11x Abrams tank crews | 6x Bradley Fighting Vehicle crews

1st Cavalry Division | 3rd Infantry Division
4th Infantry Division | 1st Armored Division
11th Armored Cavalry Regiment | 1st Infantry Division
278th Armored Cavalry Regiment
Canada | Germany | Netherlands | Poland

MEET
THE CREWS

COMPETITOR BREAKDOWN

62x Total Competitors
59x Enlisted Soldiers (Pvt. - Sgt. 1st Class)
3x Officers (2nd Lt. - 1st Lt.)
17x Coaches
1x Soldier Interpreter
58x Men
4x Women

Competitions like the Sullivan Cup serve to recognize excellence throughout the force and across the Armor Branch. These events allow schools to certify and adjust programs of instruction while assessing their ability to meet the demands of the maneuver force and to build mastery of the profession.

@MCOEFortMoore | #ArmorWeek | #SullivanCup

