

UPS On-Road Supervisor Program

Army Career Skills Program Partner Fort Benning, GA

UPS is a great place to start your post military career. The On-Road Supervisor is responsible for overseeing the performance of UPS package car drivers, ensuring quality service, improving performance, and maintaining world-class health and safety standards. This is a career opportunity with tremendous opportunities for advancement. Come join a company with unlimited growth. Ready to supervise, sweat and direct while earning a competitive wage, this career is for you!

Positions available in select locations throughout the United States.

Bachelors Degree – Preferred, Not Required!

Must Pass DOT Screening - Must Pass UPS Intake Exam

UPS is conducting a 12-week training program designed to teach you the valuable skills necessary for this demanding position.

For more info contact RayThompson@ups.com or <https://www.jobs-ups.com/military> fill out contact form.

- Competitive pay
- Fast pace environment
- Expect long hours (may include weekends)
- Multiple locations available
- Opportunity for career growth
- Management incentive pay
- Retirement savings
- Health and dental
- Discount employee stock purchasing plan
- Paid time off

For more information contact Fort Benning Career Skills Specialist.

Shaundra Dinkins
Career Skills Specialist
Solider For Life Center
706-545-1789

Jazmin Vasquez-Bueno
Career Skills Specialist
Solider For Life Center
706-545-3480

