

LTC JON C ANDERSON JR

Lieutenant Colonel Jon C. Anderson, Jr. was born in Albany, Georgia in 1979 to Chris and Sally Anderson. Jon left Albany in 1999 to attend the Virginia Military Institute in Lexington, VA, where he earned a Bachelor of Arts in History and commissioned through the R.O.T.C program as a Second Lieutenant in the U.S. Army in 2003. Jon later obtained a Masters in Science in Adult Education from Kansas State University while simultaneously completing the Army's Intermediate Level Education in 2015.

LTC Anderson began his career at the Infantry Officers Basic Course at Fort Benning in 2003, and his career has included duty stations in Georgia, New York, Kansas, Colorado, and Virginia. He has served with the 3rd Infantry Division, 10th Mountain Division, 75th Ranger Regiment, 4th Infantry Division, Army Cyber Command, and 1st Security Force Assistance Brigade. His nine deployments include Iraq, Afghanistan, Kuwait, Poland/Germany, and most recently Djibouti, Africa.