

U.S. ARMY INFANTRY

Branch Brief | A guide to the first 4 years

CPT MARK JEROME
INFANTRY BRANCH REPRESENTATIVE
OFFICE CHIEF OF THE INFANTRY

AGENDA

1. What makes the Infantry unique
2. Duty stations and types of formations
3. The first 4 years in the Infantry
4. Branching process

THE INFANTRY

“Of all branches in the U.S. Army, the Infantry is unique because its core competency is founded on the individual soldier – the Infantry Rifleman. While other branches tend to focus on weapon systems and platforms to accomplish their mission, the Infantry alone relies almost exclusively on the human dimension of the individual rifleman to close with and destroy the enemy.”

Infantry TBB Storyboard

Proponent Vision: Infantry officers must be able to operate in the most politically, economically, and environmentally adverse situations. To operate in such environments, Infantry Officers must possess the highest levels of mental toughness, problem solving ability, and physical fitness. Infantry Officers must have the ability to devise and prioritize activities rapidly, motivate and employ Soldiers, and have an innate ability to adapt to fluid situations while executing direct ground combat in Large Scale Combat Operations. Infantry Officers must have the ability to remain calm and exercise judgment while subject to a potential violent and lethal enemy threat, in the harshest environmental conditions, and in a state of mental and physical privation. At their core, Infantry Officers must be stress tolerant, emotionally mature, physically fit, possess and display grit, and tenacity; capable of completing the mission under the most difficult of conditions.

Developmental / Experiential Learning:
Key Operational Position: Rifle Platoon Leader.
Broadening Experience: Executive Officer, Scout/Mortar Platoon Leader, 75th Ranger Regiment, USAIS Instructor, Observe/Controller-Trainer.
Experiences: Platoon Live Fire; Combat Training Center Rotations; Overseas Training, Operational, and Contingency Rotations, Global Response Force (Immediate Reaction Force).

Education:
Relevant Education: The Infantry branch desires officers with academic backgrounds that span the entire spectrum of disciplines and majors offered at our nation's undergraduate institutions. Broad individual experiences contribute to the success of the branch.
Relevant Training and Experience: Leadership role in athletics / student government; Cadet Troop Leading Time / Leader Development Time (CTLT / CLDT) with Infantry units; Overseas Academic Enrichment Program; Prior enlisted service in a Maneuver Branch; Contact Sports / Triathlons / Coaching / Mentoring Experience (not all inclusive).

Expected Talents at Entry:

Assertiveness	Creative Problem-Solving	Decision Making	Even Tempered	Physical
Endurance	Lead By Example	Motivating Others	Oral Communications	Resilience
Sound Judgement	Tactical Competence	Virtuous

- TBB Talent Priorities
- 1. PROBLEM SOLVING: Identifies complex problems, analyzes information, and evaluates results to select the best solution to solve a problem.
 - 2. PHYSICAL FITNESS: Demonstrates good health and physical conditioning by prioritizing good nutrition, physical exercise, and adequate sleep.
 - 3. MULTI-TASKING: Rapidly processes and prioritizes multiple demands at the same time.
 - 4. COMMUNICATION: Skill or ability to convey or receive information through verbal, written, or nonverbal means.
 - 5. MOVITATING OTHERS: Creates support, involvement, energy and enthusiasm for the mission.
