INFANTRY: Published bimonthly at the United States Army Infantry School (Building 4), it provides current information on infantry organization, weapons, equipment, tactics, and techniques. It also includes relevant historical articles and serves as a forum for professional ideas. Unless otherwise stated, the views herein are those of the authors and not necessarily those of the Department of Defense or any element thereof. The use of funds for printing INFANTRY was approved 19 February 1985 by Headquarters, Department of the Army, The Honorable John O. Marsh, Jr., Secretary. Official distribution: three copies to each infantry and infantry-related unit and to appropriate staff agencies and service schools.

SUBSCRIPTIONS: One year, $10.00; two years, $19.00. Single copy, $2.50. A foreign (non APO) subscriber must add $3.00 per year for postage on each subscription. Payment must be made either by United States currency, by international money order, or by a check or draft drawn on a bank in the United States. One-year subscriptions are not refundable. Two-year subscriptions are refundable, but service and handling charges will be deducted. The expiration date of a subscription is shown in the first four-digit number on the address label's first line (the first two digits indicate the month, the last two digits, the year). Please notify your postmaster and INFANTRY promptly of any change of address.

CORRESPONDENCE: Address all correspondence to Editor, INFANTRY Magazine, Box 2005, Fort Benning, Georgia 31905-0605. Please furnish complete return address. Queries are answered promptly. Manuscripts are acknowledged within 30 days. Telephone: Editorial Office - 404-544-4951 (AUTOVON 784 4951); Business Office - 404/545-5997 (AUTOVON 835 5997).
