

INFANTRY MAGAZINE NEEDS YOU!!

We are now accepting articles for publication in Infantry Magazine. Topics for articles can include information on organization, weapons, equipment, tactics, techniques, and procedures. We can also use relevant historical articles, with the emphasis on the lessons we can learn from the past. If you're unsure a topic is suitable, please feel free to contact our office and run your ideas by us. We'll let you know whether we would be interested in the article, and we can also give any further guidance you may need.

Our fully developed feature articles are usually between 2,000 and 3,500 words, but these are not rigid guidelines. Most of our articles are much shorter, and we use those articles in the Professional Forum and Training Notes sections. If you have only a short comment, suggestion, or training idea, it may fit best in the Letters to the Editor section or as a Swap Shop item.

Sketches, photographs, maps, or line drawings that support your article are recommended. If you use graphics in your manuscript, please include either a high quality print or the electronic file. Graphics already imported into Microsoft Word or Powerpoint don't reproduce well; we usually need the original electronic file (jpeg, gif, tiff, bmp, etc.). Also, please remember to include where the graphic originated (author's photo, website address, etc.) so we can ensure proper credit is given to the photographer/illustrator and prevent the violation of any copyrights.

A complete Writer's and Photographer's Guide can be found on our website at www.infantry.army.mil/magazine. Please contact us with any questions or concerns.

Book Reviewers — We have lost contact with some of our book reviewers over the last few years and need more motivated writers to take on the mountain of books we have ready for review. If you are interested in reviewing a book from time to time, please send an e-mail to: Inf.MagazineDep@benning.army.mil. Please include your qualifications and areas of expertise.
